UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

THE CITY OF ATHENS

Universally known as one of the nation's premier college towns, Athens is the perfect marriage of campus and community. Broad Street is all that separates the University of Georgia's historic North Campus and a vibrant downtown community filled with restaurants and shopping. Athens has carved its own identity with the individualistic pursuits of a music scene that has turned local artists into worldwide superstars. Athens' ever-thriving music scene fostered world-wide megabands such as R.E.M. and the B-52s. Historic venues such as the Georgia Theatre and the 40-Watt Club make Athens a must-stop for a wide variety of emerging and established stars from Taylor Swift to Snoop Dogg.

THE UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

"Something for everyone." That's one way to describe the academic, athletic, and social experience at the University of Georgia. UGA is a leader among public universities nationally with a breadth and diversity of degree programs that rival any institution of higher learning. Various degree programs such as education, business, international affairs, journalism, math and public administration rank among the best in the nation. With its top-notch facilities campus-wide, the University of Georgia is an ideal setting for anyone to pursue a world-class education. The University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in the USA. On January 27, 1785 — just two years after the Revolutionary War and still four years before George Washington's inauguration as our first President — the Georgia Legislature adopted the charter that created the University of Georgia, making UGA the oldest chartered state university in the nation. More than 225 years later, Georgia still offers something for everyone.

Dan Magill Tennis Complex

THE HOME OF COLLEGE TENNIS

The newly rennovated Dan Magill Tennis Complex was unveiled in February 2020. The $8.5 million renovation project marked the largest makeover for the complex since 2002. It features a new grandstand to Henry Feild Stadium with chair-back seating in the lower levels, permanent concession stands, restrooms and a new 1,750-square foot handicap accessible press box. New umpire headquarters, as well as additional seating along the grass, can also be seen at the complex.

The Dan Magill Tennis Complex has long stood as a beacon of excellence in collegiate tennis. With a total of 18 courts (12 outdoor and six indoor) and a total seating capacity of more than 5,000 fans, it is one of the largest on-campus tennis facilities in the country. In 2006, the NCAA opted to have one combined site for the men's and women's tennis championships. Georgia has served as a host for the combined NCAA Tennis Championships in 2007, 2010, 2012, 2014, and 2015, and 2017.

Regarded as one of the best collegiate tennis facilites in America, the complex hosted the men's NCAA Championships a total of 24 times, the women's Championships three times and both genders five times, most recently in 2017. It played host to 13 NCAA Championships in a row from 1977-89. The complex underwent a $7.5 million development and renovation project in 2002 that included the construction of brand-new clubhouses for the men's and women's programs. In 1991, the complex received lights thanks to the generous support of Oscar-winning actress and Athens native, Kim Basinger.

Five of Georgia's six National Championships in men's tennis and one of the three women's NCAA titles were won on home court at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex. Aside from Georgia's best players, the Magill Tennis Complex has hosted classic matchups featuring such stars as John McEnroe and the Bryan brothers. Former men's tennis Bulldog All-American John Isner is having a successful professional career ranked in the top 20 in the world. Former Bulldog Chelsey Gullickson captured the 2010 NCAA singles title at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex and went on to play in the US Open in singles and doubles. Former Bulldog All-American Ellen Perez has been ranked as high as top 10 in the WTA doubles rankings, having competed in all four Grand Slam tournaments and reaching the French Open semifinals in 2023. Most recently, the freshly-graduated Dasha Vidmanova — who became the third woman in college tennis history to win an NCAA team, singles and doubles title — dominated competition at these courts.

Lindsey Hopkins indoor Tennis facility

EXPANDING THE HOME OF COLLEGE TENNIS

After a $26.7 million dollar renovation that began on Nov. 1, 2022, the Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Facility was officially opened for use on April 2024, just in time for the Bulldogs to host the 2024 SEC Tournament in Athens.

The updated facility features six indoor courts, 700 spectator seats, concessions, updated Playsight live stream cameras, premium gameday locker rooms, a team meeting room, electronic scoring and much more.

The facility has been used by both programs throughout the last two spring seasons, hosting various tournaments and competitions while bringing tens of collegiate tennis programs to experience the amenities and quality offered by one of the nation's premier college indoor tennis facilities.

"We are so thankful for the vision and support the University of Georgia, Josh Brooks and his staff have for our tennis programs and this project," said former men's tennis head coach Manuel Diaz in 2023. "When completed, our new six-court indoor facility will be one of the best in the nation and we will once again be able to host the NCAA Championships. Along with our recently renovated outdoor stadium, we look forward to giving our fans a great place to watch tennis."

2024-25 SEASON PREVIEW

ATHENS, Ga. — Coming off a successful 2023-24 campaign with two Southeastern Conference titles and a run as NCAA Finalists, the Georgia women's tennis team will look to replicate last season's noise with sights set going one step further in 2025.

Last season marked a new era in Athens with new leadership at the helm after Drake Bernstein was promoted to become the sixth head coach in program history. Serving on the Bulldogs' staff for 11 seasons (eight seasons as associate head coach, three as assistant coach), his appointment came after legendary head coach Jeff Wallace announced his retirement following a dynamic and storied 38-year run.

With big shoes to fill in year one, Bernstein and Bulldogs overcame an early 2-3 start to produce one of the best seasons in program history, finishing 25-5 overall and No. 3 in the ITA year-end rankings. Georgia went 12-1 in conference play to capture the program's 12th SEC regular season title before stringing together three days of dominant tennis to defeat LSU, Tennessee and Texas A&M for the program's 10th SEC Tournament crown. The Bulldogs proceeded to run the table at NCAAs, raking together five victories before falling one match short of glory in a 4-1 loss against Texas A&M in the NCAA title match. The season still ended on a high note as sophomore Anastasiia Lopata earned an NCAA Singles runner-up medal after coming in as ninth-alternate before Dasha Vidmanova and Aysegul Mert became the first duo in Georgia women's tennis history to win an NCAA Doubles title.

Heading into this season, the bar has been set high and with a year of head coaching duties in his bag, Bernstein and the Bulldogs are prepped and ready to achieve extraordinary heights once again in 2025.

Georgia returns nine of 10 players including all seven main contributors from the 2024 rotation. Most notably, four seniors in Vidmanova, Mell Reasco, Guillermina Grant and Mai Nirundorn will all be ready to make one last run at a national title. Standout juniors in Lopata and Alexandra Vecic, as well as the shining sophomore in Mert, will be back to add strong depth and experience to the roster. Along with junior Haley Gaudette and sophomore Tatum Buffington coming back to Athens, three Georgia-natives will grace the Red and Black for the first time as newcomers including junior transfer Sofia Rojas as well as freshmen Hayden Mulberry and Sarah Branicki.

With fall tennis on the horizon, seven Bulldogs were listed in the 2024 ITA preseason singles rankings with all coming in the top 100 as well as four in the top 25.

In singles, five players earned new career-high rankings as Vidmanova leads the Bulldogs at No. 2 followed by Lopata at No. 13, Vecic at No. 22, Reasco at No. 25, Nirundorn at No. 47, Grant at No. 75 and Mert at No. 94. In doubles, Georgia dons one lone pairing in Grant and Nirundorn opening at a career-high No. 7 to start the fall.

Following fall action, the Bulldogs will begin spring competition with an in-state showdown against Georgia Tech on Jan. 17 before hosting Princeton, Harvard and Charlotte at the ITA Kickoff Weekend on Jan. 25-26. February will see the Bulldogs will play host to North Carolina on Feb. 1 followed by a potential trip to the Midwest for the ITA National Team Indoor Championships, which run from Feb. 7-11 in Evanston, Ill.

Georgia will then open the SEC regular season play with a three-match homestand against South Carolina (Feb. 23), Auburn (Feb. 28) and Florida (Mar. 2). A split home-and-away weekend ensues with a road match at Kentucky (Mar. 7) followed by a home date against Tennessee (Mar. 9).

The Bulldogs' first full SEC weekend takes them to LSU (Mar. 14) and Ole Miss (Mar. 16) before returning to Athens the following weekend to host Arkansas (Mar. 21) and Oklahoma (Mar. 23). Georgia will wrap up March on the road against Alabama (Mar. 28) and Mississippi State (Mar. 30) before opening April with its final home weekend of SEC play where it will host Vanderbilt (Apr. 4) and Missouri for senior day (Apr. 6).

The Bulldogs' final SEC stretch will take them to the Lone Star State where they will face Texas (Apr. 11) before closing out the regular season against Texas A&M (Apr. 13).

Entering postseason play, the 2025 SEC Tournament will run from April 16-20 hosted by Auburn in Auburn, Ala. NCAA Regionals will take place on May 2-4, followed by NCAA Super Regionals on May 9-11 and the NCAA Championships on May 15-18 hosted by Baylor in Waco, Texas.

Jere Morehead

PRESIDENT | UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

@ugapresidentmorehead

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, the University has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history, raising more than $1.4 billion, and launched an Innovation District initiative to create UGA's campus of the future, where students and faculty partner with industry to generate ideas and solutions to continue the University's role as a powerful driver of economic development in Georgia. Since 2013, UGA has increased its research expenditures by 41% and has been ranked among the top five universities in the U.S. each year for research-based products reaching the marketplace. UGA now stands first nationally in this important ranking.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia Program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. UGA graduates are in demand: 91% of graduates in 2020 were employed or in graduate school within six months of graduation.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia since 1986 in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative posts, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export control to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

His external service currently includes serving as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee. He also serves as Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors, a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee, and a member of the NCAA Board of Governors. He is Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness to expand the role of American higher education in the global innovation economy. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Georgia Research Alliance, University System of Georgia Foundation, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

President Morehead has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award – UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence – the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

Josh BRooks

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

@joshgbrooks

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

In the spring of 2025, Georgia won four team national championships, tying the school record for most titles in one athletics season. Overall, the Bulldogs have earned seven team national championships, 10 Southeastern Conference crowns and 33 individual national championships since Brooks was named athletics director in 2021.

Georgia finished No. 7 in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup – the program's highest mark in 18 years -- as Brooks was named a finalist for the Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year. The Bulldogs have boasted a record-setting student-athlete GPA in each of the last three academic campaigns, set new fundraising marks, and completed 15 capital projects.

In addition to back-to-back football national titles in 2021 and 2022, the women's tennis team has earned six conference championships, a national indoor crown and most recently a NCAA title in 2025; soccer has made the NCAA tournament in back-to-back years for only the second time in program history; both track and field teams finished national runner-up at the 2025 NCAA National Indoor Championships with the women earning the program's first-ever outdoor title, while equestrian earned national titles in 2021 and 2025.

With a focus on maintaining the University's mission of excellence in teaching and learning, Bulldog student-athletes have excelled academically. Recently, UGA swimmers Abby McCulloh (2025) and Callie Dickinson (2023) garnered the prestigious H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award – the highest honor earned by a student-athlete in the SEC. Women's tennis star Dasha Vidmanova – only the third female tennis player to win the NCAA's triple crown – was named the 2025 recipient of the Honda Award for tennis.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team. A Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee was also established as Courtney Gay was hired to lead in the department's DEI efforts.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012. He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community.

HEAD COACH (2024-PRESENT)

Following two seasons as head coach of the Georgia women's tennis team, Drake Bernstein has done a tremendous job of maintaining the program culture and standard set by longtime head coach Jeff Wallace. In year two at the helm, Bernstein led Georgia to a 29-3 overall record with a No. 1 ranking finish after capping off the year with a trio of titles, winning the 2025 NCAA Championship (third in program history), the 2025 ITA National Team Indoor title (fifth in program history) and a third-consecutive SEC Tournament title (11th in program history). Georgia also finished 13-2 in conference regular season play, good for second place in the SEC standings. Bernstein's successful season earned him top coaching honors, winning both 2025 ITA National and Regional Coach of the Year awards as well as 2025 SEC Coach of the Year honors. Bernstein's coaching led the Bulldogs to a season-long stretch of dominance as they went 13-0 in tournament-style competition between all three title-winning competitions. Georgia also won 19 of 32 matches this season via sweep with five coming in the NCAA Tournament, tying the most dominant tournament run in NCAA history (lost only one team point through six matches, matching Stanford in '01, '04 and '06). Following the program's NCAA team title in May, Bernstein became the fastest Georgia men's or women's tennis head coach to complete win an NCAA, ITA, SEC regular season and SEC tournament title (62 matches coached through two seasons). Bernstein has also proven to produce immediate results, holding an overall head coaching record of 54-8 (62 matches) while posting the best win percentage through a coach's first 50 matches at the helm in both men's and women's program history at 44-6 (0.88).

The 2023-24 season marked a new era in Georgia women's tennis program history with first-year head coach Drake Bernstein at the helm. Following the retirement of former head coach Jeff Wallace at the conclusion of the 2022-23 season, Bernstein was named the sixth head coach in program history. In his first year in charge, Bernstein led the Bulldogs to a 25-5 overall record with a 12-1 mark in SEC play, finishing No. 3 nationally while winning both SEC regular season and tournament titles before orchestrating a deep run to end the year as NCAA Finalists. In what was a historical 50th season of Georgia women's tennis, Bernstein coached the Bulldogs to the most wins by a first-year head coach in program history with 25, while also becoming the first head coach in program history to win both SEC regular season and tournament titles in their first year at the helm. The Bulldogs were dominant throughout the season as they knocked off 10 ranked teams, went an undefeated 7-0 at home and 11-2 on neutral courts while also posting two separate winning streaks of 11 or more victories. Bernstein was named 2024 Co-SEC Coach of the Year as well as Wilson ITA Southeast Regional Coach of the Year, earning his first accolade and the first in 10 seasons since Jeff Wallace won the award in 2014.

ASSOCIATE/ASSISTANT COACH (2013-23)

During his tenure as associate and assistant head coach with the women's tennis program, Bernstein helped coach the Bulldogs to a 235-52 record over 11 seasons (.818 winning percentage). A key contributor to Georgia coaching staff, the Bulldogs earned 10 consecutive NCAA tournament bids (the 2020 NCAA tournament was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic). In this stretch, Georgia captured an ITA National Team Indoors Championship (2019), three SEC Regular Season Championships (2013, 2019, 2021) and three SEC Tournament titles (2014, 2021, 2023) with a final ITA national team ranking inside the top five six times.

Behind Coach Wallace, Bernstein played an integral part in the development of 35 All-SEC honorees, 18 Individual All-Americans, 34 Total All-American Honors, 36 ITA Scholar-Athletes, three SEC Freshman of the Year selections, two SEC Players of the Year, and one National Player of the Year. Bernstein also served as lead recruiter, traveling globally to various Grand Slam tournaments and securing some of the world's top tennis student-athletes.

The 2023 campaign saw the Bulldogs finish with a record of 26-5 and a final ITA ranking of No. 2 nationally. Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the NCAA Championships, the finals of the ITA National Team Indoors and won the SEC Tournament. Bernstein's efforts contributed to four All-SEC honorees, one regional senior of the year, one regional freshman of the year and two All-American honorees.

In 2022, Georgia finished the season with an overall record of 19-7 including a 10-3 clip in SEC play. The Bulldogs went on to reach the NCAA Tournament Round of 16 before capping off the season with a final ITA Ranking of No. 12.

Georgia produced a successful 2021 season, going 23-2 overall before finishing the campaign at No. 3 in the final ITA rankings. The Bulldogs made a quarterfinal appearance at the NCAA Championships after dominating the SEC slate, going a perfect 13-0 to claim the regular season crown before earning three sweeps in route to the SEC Tournament title. A trio of players earned a total of four All-America honors including senior Katarina Jokic, who was a finalist for the Honda Award. Additionally, the team finished with the highest Grade Point Average of any Georgia women's sport for the spring semester of 2021 with a 3.57 mark. Following the season, Bernstein earned his fourth ITA Southeast Regional Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In 2020, the Georgia was on its way to another successful season, reaching as high as No. 2 in the ITA Rankings before the spring season was canceled due to the COVID-19 Pandemic. The Bulldogs qualified for the ITA National Team Indoor Championships in Chicago, Ill. while also opening conference play undefeated.

The 2019 season saw one of Georgia's most successful team in program history. The Bulldogs captured their fourth ITA National Team Indoor Championship after defeating the reigning champions North Carolina before securing a SEC regular season title after a perfect 13-0 conference slate. The team fell just short of an NCAA title in May, falling in the national title match as the Bulldogs finished the season with a No. 2 overall ranking. Following a dominant run, Katarina earned the program's second National Player of the Year award, following Angela Lettiere in 1994.

In 2018, the Bulldogs finished 18-7 highlighted by an elite eight appearance and a No. 7 ITA final ranking. Bernstein's coaching efforts earned him his third ITA Southeast Regional Assistant Coach of the Year award.

In 2017, the Bulldogs earned a 19-6 record with an 11-2 SEC mark, good for second in the SEC. Georgia notched a run to the ITA Indoor semifinals while also finishing the year ranked No. 6 following an NCAA round of 16 appearance.

Bernstein's assistance also helped lead the Bulldogs' top duo of Lauren Herring and Maho Kowase all the way to the NCAA Doubles Championships Final. Georgia's successful campaign came in Bernstein's second season on staff, earning him his first ITA Southeast Regional Assistant Coach of the Year award of his career.

In his first season as assistant coach with the Bulldogs in 2013, Bernstein provided an immediate impact on staff, helping the Bulldogs produce a 24-4 overall mark highlighted by an SEC regular season championship. Georgia reached the SEC Tournament final before finishing the year ranked No. 5 nationally after a run to the NCAA quarterfinals.

Before returning to Georgia to continue his coaching career, Bernstein spent one season in Tuscaloosa as an assistant coach for the Crimson Tide's women's tennis team. The Crimson Tide posted an 18-5 record in route to claiming the SEC Western Division with a 10-1 league mark while playing host to an NCAA Regional for the first time in school history.

UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENTS

UNIVERSITY ENDOWMENTS

The Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program was instituted to allow supporters of the University of Georgia Athletic Association to invest in the educational opportunities of UGA student-athletes. The program is vital to the future of Georgia Athletics by providing the long-term solution of keeping pace with escalating expenses. A gift to establish a scholarship provides income towards funding a scholarship each year and permanently memorializes the donor or any individual whose honor the scholarship is named. A full scholarship is endowed through a gift of $150,000.

There are four women's tennis scholarship endowments including one established by the UGAAA in honor of the 2000 team which won both the NCAA and SEC titles. For more information about the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program or other giving opportunities, please contact the UGAAA Development office at (877) 423-2947.

Mell Reasco is the 2025 recipient of the Leighton Ballew tennis scholarship. If no international student-athlete exists, selection of a student-athlete recipient is based on the aforementioned criteria. The late Mr. Ballew was a UGA faculty member for 40 years and founded the drama department.
